Data Privacy Notice

To find out how your personal information is used, please refer to the FULL version of the Privacy Notice available on our website at sparsholt.ac.uk. Your personal information is used by the DfE to exercise its functions under article 6(1)(e) of the UK GDPR and to meet its statutory responsibilities, including under the Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009. Their lawful basis for using your special category personal data is covered under Substantial Public Interest based in law (Article 9(2)(g)) of GDPR legislation. This processing is under Section 54 of the Further and Higher Education Act (1992). It helps ensure that public money is being spent in line with government targets. It is also used for education, training, employment, and well-being purposes, including research. They will retain ILR (Individualised Learner Record) learner data for 20 years for operational purposes (e.g. to fund your learning and to publish official statistics). Your personal data is then retained in their research databases until you are aged 80 years so that it can be used for long-term research purposes. ILR data is shared with third parties where it complies with DfE data sharing procedures and where the law allows it. The DfE and the English European Social Fund (ESF) Managing Authority (or agents acting on their behalf) may contact learners to carry out research and evaluation to inform the effectiveness of training. For more information about the ILR and the data collected, information on how your personal data is used, your individual rights and how to contact the DfE, please refer to the FULL version of the Privacy Notice available on our website at sparsholt.ac.uk.

We (the College) may wish to communicate with you directly once you have completed your programme of learning if we have opportunities that we think may interest you, if you'd like to be contacted, please tick any of the boxes below.

I wish to be contacted by the College:

- ☐ about courses or learning opportunities ☐ for surveys and research

The College may also share your data with the agents and service providers that it contracts with to deliver your education and associated services, such as transport and catering.

Learning Agreement information and advice:

Information and advice should satisfy you in the following key areas:
